

DECATUR, ILLINOIS

Thursday Evening, Jan. 13.

The DAILY REPUBLICAN will be delivered to subscribers in the part of the city, at Twenty Cents per copy.

Local Notices will be inserted at Ten Cents per line for the first insertion, and five cents per line for each insertion thereafter. Rates for these advertisements will be furnished upon application at the office.

TO DAILY SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscriptions to the DAILY REPUBLICAN will be collected every Saturday, at the place where the paper is delivered, unless otherwise ordered.

We would request our subscribers to inform the carrier at what particular place they desire their papers to be left.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

For choice fresh oysters go to Inbodens.

Try Nellor's, near the mound, for the best grades of tea and coffee.

Go to Newell & Hammer for choice fruits and vegetables.

Choice butter and fresh eggs at Adams & Hendren.

Oysters on the half shell, or in any style or quantity at Simpson's, No. 10 old square.

B. M. Barnett & Co. are fully stocked with fruits and vegetables.

All the latest styles of boots and shoes may be found at Gen. F. Wessels, at prices which defy competition. "Come and see."

For repairs on your cloak, watch or jewelry, call on H. Post, in P. T. Lockett's music store on Merchant street.

A hard freeze last night.

Cisterns are getting dry in all parts of the city.

Corn is selling at 35¢-40¢ by the bushel.

Apples are not as plenty as they were, nor as good.

Roads are getting smooth again.

Mailmen complain of light business, both in passengers and freight.

In order to make room for dispensing stock S. Einstein is selling his goods at greatly reduced prices.

A due lot of plaid dress goods, all New York prices, to be found at Einstein's.

Ice packers are again hoping for a good crop.

Our business men are changing their locations to quite an extent with the opening of the new year, and there are also some dissolutions of old firms and the formation of new ones.

There was full attendance at the meetings at the different churches last evening, and services were generally of a deeply interesting character.

The case of The City vs. Mrs. Goodell, is up before Justice Hughes this afternoon. She is charged, on the affidavit of her husband, with keeping a bawdy house. This case is to be followed by one in which Mrs. Goodell will appear in the role of plaintiff, and her husband in that of defendant. The affair seems to be slightly mixed, but we presume the court will get a sufficient insight into it to enable him to mete out even handed justice to all concerned.

Returned. — Mr. Frank V. Early, formerly of this city, and more recently of Danville, has bought a fourth interest in the St. Clair Roulring mill and has returned to Decatur with his family to live. We are pleased to welcome Mr. Early back to our city, and congratulate him upon his fine business prospects.

J. H. Kuleper would respectfully announce that he has removed his jewelry store to No. 24 Merchant street, where he will be pleased to see all of his old customers and as many new ones as will favor him with a call. By the way, he acknowledges no superior in watch repairing.

Jan. 13 d&wtf.

Warnings to Young Men.—Thieves and vagabonds who hang around town may be made to serve one good purpose if no other, provided the young men of the city will take warning from them. Every young man who is not usefully employed, and is in the habit of spending his days and evenings on the streets and in different lodging places, is fast coming to the same degraded experience of those who are now regarded as abandoned characters. The point is reached gradually, a step at a time, but the progress is sure, and the goal certain to be reached. Those boys who are rejoicing in having nothing to do, and indulging in different kinds of mischief as a pastime, had better beware, or the first they know they will be roped in as accomplices of thieves, and ranked with loafers and vagabonds. They should be warned by the degraded condition of many whom they meet upon the streets daily.

DIED.

At the residence of Mr. Joseph T. Gates, in this city, on the morning of January 13th, Miss LAURA EMERSON, daughter of the late Judge Emerson, aged 22 years.

Miss Emerson graduated from our High School two years ago last June. During the last few months prior to the holidays, she, with her sister, was a student in Eureka College, this State. They came to this city to spend the holidays with their friends, and about a week ago Miss Laura was stricken down with typhoid fever. Since her first attack her case has been considered critical, though her friends, even as late as yesterday, entertained hopes of her recovery. She was held in high esteem, and her early death will be sincerely deplored by her many friends.
